

WITH THE WASHINGTON CHURCHES

EPISCOPAL.

Upon recommendation of Bishop Harding, Rev. Robert Evans Browning has been placed in charge of Trinity Church for the summer. The rector of Trinity parish, one of the oldest in Washington, is Rev. George W. Van Fossen, who has gone away on account of ill health.

Rev. Mr. Browning is in charge of the Oregon Coast Mission in Coos County, and is in the East for a few months to study church conditions, returning to Oregon in September. He is a native of Washington, and resided here until six years ago, when he assumed work under Bishop Seading. He is a graduate of St. Stephen's College and of the Virginia Theological Seminary, and during his early ministry here was connected with Ascension parish, and also acted as secretary to the late Bishop Satterlee.

Public meetings will be held in connection with the Mount St. Alban Summer School on the Washington Cathedral Close next week, June 12 to 16, inclusive, under the joint management of the boards of religious education of the province and of the diocese of Washington. The school opens with a public service in the Bethlehem Chapel Monday at 4 o'clock, with festive services by the cathedral choir, an address of welcome by the Bishop of Washington and an address by Right Rev. Rogers Israel, D. D., Bishop of Erie (Pa.) and president of the board of religious education of the province of Washington.

Parents are specially invited to attend the parents' and teachers' class Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings in St. Hilary's Hall, at 4 o'clock. This class is conducted by Miss Frances H. Withers, superintendent of St. Paul's Church School, Yorkers, N. Y., and its subject will be "The Home: Its Relation to the Church and the Sunday School." The class is open without charge to all wishing to attend.

Public open-air stereopticon lectures by Rev. S. U. Mitman, Ph. D., field secretary of the board of religious education of the province of Washington, which were very popular last year and the year before, will be given in St. Hilary's Woodland Theater, of the Cathedral School, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings at 8:45 o'clock. Tuesday evening the subject will be "The Temples of Ancient Egypt." Wednesday, "Athens, the Home of Art." Thursday, "The Magnificent." These lectures, which are free, will, in case of rain, be held in St. Hilary's Hall.

For the benefit of teachers unable to attend the morning sessions of the school as well as for the others, departmental educational conferences are held every evening, June 12 to 15, from 5:30 to 6:30. Dr. Mitman will conduct the conference for adult Bible class teachers, his subject being "Four Important Factors in the Adult Bible Class Teaching." Miss Jane Millikin, superintendent of teacher training in the Diocese of Maryland, will conduct the conference for senior grade teachers, her topic being "An Ideal Leadership for Seniors." The junior grade teachers will consider "Junior Opportunities and Problems" under the leadership of Miss Helen I. Jennings, superintendent of elementary grades, Trinity Church School, Potomac, Pa., and primary grade teachers, led by Mrs. Edna Phelps Hastings, superintendent of primary instruction in the Diocese of Washington, will discuss "Primary Principles, Methods and Courses." These conferences, which are free, will be held in the groves near the Cathedral School for Girls.

The subjects of the morning classes, for which a small enrollment fee is charged, are 9:40 to 10:40, an elementary and an advanced course on religious pedagogy and teacher training, the elementary topic, by Miss Jennings, being "A Study of the Pupil," and the advanced topic by Dr. Mitman, "The Teaching Process." 10:50 to 11:20, "Social Service in the Sunday School," by Rev. Augustine Elmendorf, executive secretary of the Social Service Commission of the Diocese of Newark, N. J.; 11:30 to 12:15, lectures on the four gospels by Rev. Wallace E. Rollins, D. D., professor in the Virginia Theological Seminary; 12:15 to 1:15, departmental classes on "The Teaching of Missions in the Sunday School." Of these classes, the first for adult Bible class teachers will be led by Dr. William H. Jefferys, of St. Luke's Hospital, Shanghai.

China, his subject being "Modern Discipleship," that for senior grade teachers, "Studies in the Gospel of St. Matthew," by Miss Grace Lindley, associate secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary, Church Missions House; that for junior grade teachers, "Topical Mission Teaching," by Mrs. Ernest E. Osgood, superintendent of teacher training in the Diocese of Virginia and educational secretary of the Virginia branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, and that for primary grade teachers, "The Gospel of the Kingdom," by Miss Anne Hubbard, educational secretary of the Junior auxiliary of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

A service of benediction for the clergy will be conducted by the bishop of Erie in the little sanctuary every afternoon, June 12 to 15, from 3 to 5, to discuss educational, pastoral and personal problems.

DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.

Rev. Edward B. Bagby has accepted a call to the pastorate of the recently organized Columbia Heights Christian Church, meeting temporarily in the Post-office Hall on Park road, west of Fourteenth street, and will enter upon his new duties on September 1. During the intervening weeks Mr. Bagby will attend the mid-week services of the church on Thursday evenings.

Rev. Mr. Bagby was the first pastor of Ninth Street Christian Church of this city and is now in charge of the Twenty-fifth Street Church in Baltimore.

Rev. H. F. Lutz, pastor of the H Street Christian Church, will preach to the Columbia Heights congregation tomorrow evening at which service the Lord's Supper will be observed. Children's day exercises will be held in the morning.

At the Ninth Street Christian Church the pastor, Rev. George A. Miller, will preach tomorrow morning and evening. At the morning service his subject will be "Christ or Another." In the evening the subject of the sermon will be "Knowledge and Activity."

At the evening service Jared Hayden who has been preaching at Maryland Park and Capital Heights, will be ordained to the ministry of the Christian Church. The ordination of baptism will be administered at the close of the ordination service.

The cornerstone was laid this week for the new Bible Schoolhouse of the Ninth Street Christian Church. Rev. George A. Miller, pastor of the church, president, and Rev. Peter Alsie, pastor of the Christian Temple, of Baltimore, Md., and Rev. Edward B. Bagby, former pastor of the Ninth Street Christian Church and now of Baltimore, addressed the congregation.

The cornerstone was laid by T. A. Hostetter, superintendent of the school, and president of the Sunday School Association of the District of Columbia. The copper box contained pictures of the two pastors of the church as well as pictures of the board of officers, a history of the church, and other interesting documents.

The new building, which is to cost $25,000, exclusive of the ground, is to be completed by October 1, and will accommodate more than 2,000 persons. W. R. Metz, member of the church board, is the architect; Frank L. Wagner, formerly acting superintendent of the school, is the builder; and J. A. Scott, Jr., secretary of the school, is the superintendent of construction of the building.

Hoover and Miss Nellie Stiermer, who will tell of the Epworth League Institute to be held at Mountain Lake Park, in July. Their subjects will be: "Inspiration, Recreation and Education."

M'ADOO OUT OF RACE.

Will Not Accept Chairmanship of National Committee.

Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo issued a statement yesterday declaring he would not accept the chairmanship of the Democratic National Committee under any circumstances. In his statement Mr. McAdoo made a sharp reference to so-called unwilling candidates for political office, who fail to eliminate themselves by an unequivocal statement that they would not accept the office in question if it was tendered them. Mr. McAdoo said:

"I have repeatedly stated that in no circumstances would I accept the chairmanship of the Democratic National Committee. This is final. It is easy enough for a man to eliminate himself from consideration for any office if he really wants to do so."

CHINA'S RULER THANKS WILSON.

Expresses Appreciation of Message of Condolence from U. S.

President Wilson received this cablegram yesterday from President Li Yuen Hung of China:

"On behalf of the government and people of China, I thank the government and people of the United States and yourself for your message of sympathy on the occasion of the death of President Yuan Shi Kai. Madam Yuan desires me to express to Mrs. Wilson and yourself her heartfelt thanks for your kind expression of sympathy, guided by the great ideas that have made the United States an enduring republic and a prosperous country. I hope to see realized your wishes for the prosperity of the Chinese people."
